

Dansville Middle School Board Updates

December 2022

Dansville Middle School students enjoyed a special Aggie Family meal and activities to celebrate Thanksgiving. Students spent time eating together as a House group, and then participated in various team building activities. The students also worked as House groups to decorate the hallways for the holidays.

