

Communication at Dansville Schools

New/Renewed Methods of Communication in 2011-12 School Year:

1. Launch of new district website (www.dansville.org)
 - a. Each administrator now has access and ownership of their own pages
 - b. Increased effort to maintain the pages and keep them current
2. District-wide Google calendar on website
3. Renewed effort and training of staff to develop teacher webpages that are linked to the district website
4. Increased use of surveys to monitor effectiveness and gain understanding (communication survey/bullying survey/School Data Profile Analysis survey)
5. Launch of district FaceBook page/Teacher FaceBook pages
6. Publishing of Aggie Points of Pride on website, with opportunity to add additional points of pride all year
7. Fall and Spring Community Meetings
8. Re-establishing Parent Advisory Committees at each building and the establishment of a District Advisory Committee

Ongoing Methods of Communication:

1. Using the AlertNow phone communication system
2. Sending District Newsletters three times per year to the entire community
3. Parent-Teacher Conferences twice per year for each building
4. PowerSchool Parent Portal
