- 2025 Board of Education Meeting Calendar: Will be an Action item at the January meeting with a change to the July 2025 meeting date.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

- Several people spoke from both the Dansville and Mason Communities.

SUPERINTENDENT REPORT

Superintendent Wonnell reported on the following item:

- Spirit Week: Staff and students participated in a themed Spirit Week.
- Happy Holidays: Thankful for all board members and their hard work and dedication to our school.
- Mentor/Mentee Group: This session, facilitated by Andrew Hodgson, centered on designing and implementing effective independent practice.
- DSIT: The School Improvement Team reviewed and discussed the EdWeek article What Is Standards-Based Grading, and How Does It Work?
- Leadership Development: The principals and I continue to engage in leadership development with Debbie McFalone.
- Congressional Leadership Call: Participated in Representative Slotkin's final leadership call on December 4 as she transitions to the U.S. Senate.
- HeartSafe: The Ingham Township Fire Department is assisting us in becoming a HeartSafe school district by developing a cardiac response plan and conducting cardiac drills.
- Congratulations: Congratulations to Faith Caroen, who signed with Jackson College to play soccer and Wyatt Mosley, who signed with West Virginia to play baseball.
- Budget: David and/or Raelynn will present Revision I of the budget during the January BOE meeting.

- Community Support: The Dansville community's support for the Prevo family during their time of loss has been truly heartwarming. Losing an eleven-year-old is a profound tragedy, and the community's kindness has been a beacon of hope.

The Board adjourned at 6:46 p.m.
