

Facilities Report October 2025

- Attended the MSBO Facility conference, took classes toward getting my certification, and made connections with vendors and others in the same position.
- Over the last month, I have done many furniture repairs and have been dealing with vandalism in the restrooms.
- Aside from the usual requests, I have been going through inventory and working on consolidating storage areas.